GIVE MY BOY THE HELP HE NEEDS TO SPEAK

By CHRIS MOSS
moss@hertsessexnews.co.uk

A TODDLER with speech difficulties has been kept waiting almost a year for an 'urgent' appointment with a specialist NHS therapist because of a shortage of qualified staff.

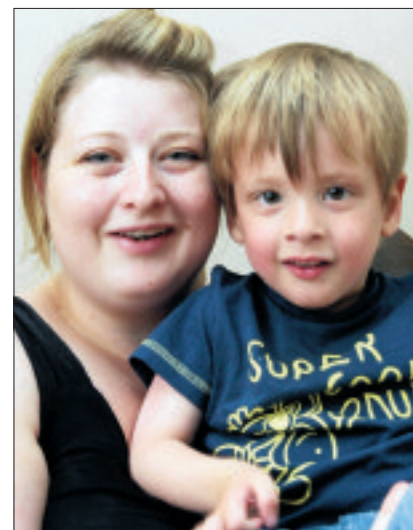

Kyle Grimwood (2), who was born eight weeks premature, has severe problems in expressing himself after struggling to pick up speech and language skills.

Concerned about his education and personal development, Kyle's mother Zoe Kennedy (23), of Foldcroft, Harlow, sought advice from her family GP who referred him to the Florence Nightingale Health Centre at Church Langley.

But 11 months later he has yet to undergo his first therapy session.

Miss Kennedy told the Star: "I was told by our GP that it was very important to address his learning problems as early on as possible

Firebomb 'target': I thought I started it

THE alleged target of a firebomb which left a young woman dead and her boyfriend permanently brain damaged initially told police he thought he was to blame for the blaze.

Paranoid schizophrenic Darren Satchwell, whose flat was set on fire, told a detective he had left a cigarette in an ashtray, adding: "It was an accident; it slipped my mind. "I saw a bit of smouldering. I knocked over the ashtray and walked round to Tony's [a friend] flat. I never meant to do it. Am I going to prison? I heard about it the next day on the radio."

The officer, Detective Constable Andrews Bourton told Chelmsford Crown Court he arranged for Mr Satchwell to go hospital for treatment under the Mental Health Act. He was discharged later the same day.

The claims were made during the third week of the trial of two teenagers - Carl Manton (18), of Longbanks, Harlow and a 17-year-old who cannot be named for legal reasons - who are accused of murder, manslaughter, causing grievous bodily harm and arson with intent to endanger life and being reckless as to whether life was endangered. They deny all the charges.

Another tenant at the block of flats told the hearing there had previously been two fires at Mr Satchwell's flat which had resulted in firefighters being called.

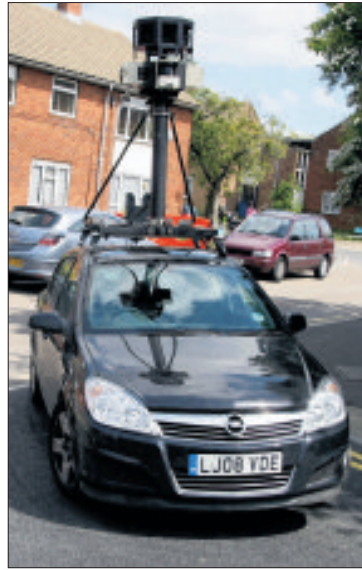

She said on the evening of the fatal fire she saw two young men "hanging around" Mr Satchwell's flat when she arrived home from work.

The prosecution alleges the arson attack was carried out by the two defendants - then aged 13 and 14 - who had been involved in bullying Mr Satchwell.

A 40-year-old woman and a 37-year-old man each deny committing acts tending or intending to pervert the course of justice by making a false statement about one of the boys' whereabouts.

A 15-year-old girl also denies making a false statement. The hearing continues.

Google maps out streets of Harlow

WEB surfers all over the world will soon be able to take a virtual stroll through Harlow using the internet mapping service Google Street View.

The Google camera car was spotted in Potter Street on Tuesday afternoon, taking photos of shops and homes which will eventually be uploaded to the web to give users a virtual street-level view of the town.

The service has attracted a great deal of controversy since going live in March this year, with many people claiming it has invaded their personal privacy and requesting photographs of their homes and cars to be removed from the website.

to reduce the chances of them affecting him in the long-term. But every time I contact the centre to find out what's going on I either end up leaving messages or I'm told they're understaffed. It's just not good enough."

Kyle's speech problems have now seen him held back a year at nursery school and his inability to express himself properly has led to the development of behavioural problems.

"It's not fair on Kyle," said Miss Kennedy. "His learning and development are suffering and he'll have to watch all his friends move on to school while he's kept behind."

Julie Maybury, integrated team leader for children with special needs at NHS West Essex, laid the blame for the delay in assessing Kyle on a national shortage of trained therapists.

"We regret any delay in assessing children for specialist speech and language therapy," she added. "The problem is nothing to do with money but a lack of people with the right skills."

"The good news locally is that we have successfully recruited a specialist speech and language therapist who will be joining us in July, meaning we can offer more rapid assessments."

Woman in court over blaze at tower block

A WOMAN appeared in court at Chelmsford on Saturday accused of deliberately starting a fire with the intention of putting lives at risk.

Firefighters ushered 10 people, three of them children, out of Pennymead Tower in Harlow after a fire started in a communal area on Thursday evening.

The fire, which was brought under control by about 8.40pm, was subject of a joint police and fire investigation to establish the cause.

The following day a 43-year-old woman was arrested in Broadfield, Harlow and later charged with arson with intent to endanger life.

Vicarage fire lit up the sky

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor
sassooni@hertsessexnews.co.uk

HARLOW resident Geoffrey Tyrell has been in contact to share his memories of the time he witnessed the old vicarage of St Mary and St Hugh Church, in Churchgate Street, burn down.

"I think it was in 1964," he said. "It was one evening and one of the family saw the light in the sky so I walked there from Windmill Fields.

"I was not alone as a lot of other people had seen it too and we were making our way towards it. This often happens at events such as this, of course.

"When I got there the vicarage was well alight. It was a large old building among the trees. It was pretty spectacular and there was naturally a lot of heat coming off it.

"A lot of local people had gathered there watching the firemen tackle the blaze. I took some pictures and one of these has survived until now. "I took another one the day after to show the damage which was quite severe."

Mr Tyrell added: "The building was Sheering Road was probably closed for a time as the fire was very near it and there were hoses alongside from a nearby fire hydrant."

The vicarage has since been rebuilt as part of the area now known as Staffords.

Do you have any memories of that night or of the vicarage before it burned down? Write to Nostalgia, 6 West Gate, Harlow, CM20 1JW or email sassooni@hertsessexnews.co.uk.

Reg's farewell from colleagues at Cossor

IT'S time to return to a recent Nostalgia item when we asked if any readers knew where and why this picture was taken.

The answer comes from Ron Hornsey, who believes it was taken at Cossor Electronics at Pinnacles between 1964 and 1970.

The picture shows the heavy squad who had gathered to see off Mr Reg Trew. He was leaving to become a school teacher and they presented him with a pen and pencil set.

Our thanks to Mr Hornsey for taking the time to tell us the story behind the photograph.

Geordie's return home

REGULAR correspondent Ron Bill called the Nostalgia desk to help with a request for information made by former Harlow resident Susan Stephenson (nee Hudson) who was looking into her past.

Mr Bill said he knew Mrs Stephenson's father Burt, a former Labour councillor, and had a hand in helping the family move back up north. "He was a Geordie and said he missed being in Newcastle," said Mr Bill. "I wrote to Peterlee New Town Corporation to see if he could be transferred as a corporation tenant and the request was accepted.

"He was over the moon and said it was his salvation."

News from 25 years ago

Row over Sunday trading

Texas Homecare, the do-it-yourself superstore in Edinburgh Way, may be taken to the High Court by Harlow Council because it continues to trade on Sundays. The council has received a petition from 13 employees of Superdee do-it-yourself superstore in West Gate complaining about Sunday trading.

Trader's refuse threat

A local trader was so enraged by Harlow Council's refuse collection service he threatened to dump his rubbish on the town hall steps. Barry Plumridge made the threat after four weeks without a rubbish collection.

Fury over name change

A decision to rename Link Way in Harlow after a man who was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment for speaking out against apartheid has infuriated two Conservative councillors. It comes after members of the highways committee voted to name the road after Dave Kitson.

Schools to close early

Many schools will close early today because of action by members of the National Association of Schoolmasters Union of Teachers. Members are staging a one-hour stoppage this afternoon to mark the tenth anniversary of the last time teachers had a 'realistic' pay rise.

Coach firm driven out of town for drop-offs

THE boss of a coach firm claims Harlow's shops and leisure facilities are losing money because of the inadequate provision of access to the town centre for private coaches.

Peter Barker, who runs Barker-Bus in Hamlet Hill, Roydon, said his vehicles have nowhere suitable to drop off and pick up passengers since coach bays in Luther King Road were paved over as part of the Water Gardens development.

With use of the town centre bus terminus restricted by Harlow Council and a busy summer season on the horizon, Mr Barker is concerned he will struggle to ferry people to and from Harlow.

"I really think the council is missing a trick," he told the Star. "With the economy in the dire state it is, you would hope the local authority is doing all it can to drum up extra business and promote the town."

Mr Barker said he had been told by the council he can make use of a number of the town's laybys, many of which are located in out-of-town industrial estates.

"Who's going to want to go on a day trip to Harlow if they're dropped off in an industrial estate miles from the town centre and expected to find their own way to the shops?" he said.

"The council's unwillingness to help would seem to be at odds with their desire to encourage more people to visit the town and no doubt causes local businesses to miss out on new customers."

A council spokesman said the bus station was not designed to accommodate coaches parked for long periods but confirmed BarkerBus would be able to use laybys across the town, the locations of which will soon be detailed on the authority's website.

Kittens orphaned by airgun pellet find a new mum

A LITTER of kittens orphaned when their mother was shot with a ball bearing gun were this week feline great after finding a surrogate mum.

The four kittens were only three days old when their mother Biscuit, owned by a Sam Wheeler, died of a pellet wound which ripped through most of her vital organs.

It is thought she was held up and shot in the abdomen before being left for dead. She was still alive when she was found and taken to a vet but her injuries

By LOUISE SASSOON
News Editor
sassoonl@hertsexnews.co.uk

were too severe for her to be saved.

The incident is currently the subject of an RSPCA investigation.

Miss Wheeler (25), of Ram Gorse, Harlow, and her daughters Brooke (5) and Lacie (3) have been left devastated by Biscuit's death and set about hand-rearing the kittens.

But after one died they looked for help and it arrived in the form of Maxi, a neighbour's cat who only recently gave birth to kittens herself and is rearing Biscuit's litter as if they were her own.

"It was really emotional seeing how well Maxi responded to Biscuit's kittens," said Sam. "We sat there until she took them on. It was tear-jerking."

The vet who treated Biscuit said the pellet penetrated her intestines causing fatal damage.

Sam is now urging parents to think twice before letting their children have ball bearing guns which are legal to buy but illegal to carry in a public place.

"We have been devastated by

MUM'S THE WORD: Sam Wheeler and Maxi

Biscuit's death," she said. "My eldest daughter has been particularly upset and keeps crying at school."

"Although we are happy the kittens are doing well we will never be able to replace Biscuit. I think there should be tougher regulations on buying ball bearing guns and I hope this makes parents think twice about letting their children have them."

A police spokeswoman said anyone who sees a person carrying an air gun or ball-bearing gun in public should contact officers at Harlow on 0300 3334444.

Health chiefs confirm two cases of swine flu

TWO people from North Weald have been confirmed as having swine flu.

The man and the woman, who are both said to be in their thirties and have close contact with one another, were diagnosed after coming down with symptoms.

The unnamed man was the first to be struck down with the bug after returning from a business trip to America. He initially experienced a cough which developed into the flu.

"It's pretty mild as flu goes," he said. "I would only have stayed at home for a day or so but it's only because it's swine flu that I am still at home."

The woman contracted the virus a few days later and is currently on anti-virals and resting at home.

More than 100 people are thought to have died in Mexico as a result of swine flu which has so far infected 65 people in the UK.

Rory McCrea, medical director at NHS West Essex said the organisation is taking measures to prevent the disease spreading.

"We have in place robust plans to tackle swine flu and keep them under regular review. Our incident team meets regularly to monitor the situation."

Car share plea to hospital patients

WORK has begun on a new £1.5 m MRI scanner facility at St Margaret's Hospital in Epping.

The scanner, which will take 13 weeks to install, will be accommodated in a new purpose-built area and enable the hospital to increase capacity and reduce waiting times for patients who require routine scans.

Sharon Keown, associate director for estates and facilities for NHS West Essex, said: "While the scanner facility is being built we will be without 30-40 parking spaces. However, the additional parking created will solve the problem which has been an issue on the hospital site for many years.

"This is a case of short-term pain for long-term gain, with many people benefiting from the scanner once it is operational. In the meantime we would urge people to car share or use public transport to get to the hospital to reduce the demand for on-site parking."

Pamper night is a success, by GOSH

LADIES were pampered from head to toe when they took part in an evening of luxury courtesy of the Church Langley Registered Childminders.

More than 150 people attended the evening which raised in excess of £1,400 to be split between the group and Great Ormond Street Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said: "It is thanks to community groups like the Church Langley Registered Childminders that Great Ormond Street Hospital is able to remain a world class centre for treating very ill children from Essex and all over the UK. "Every penny raised helps to redevelop the hospital, buy vital equipment and fund pioneering research and we are so grateful for everyone's support."

Tea dance raises £800 for charity

TWO of England's favourite pastimes – drinking tea and dancing – helped raise more than £800 for The Parkinson's Disease Society UK when the Harlow and District branch of the charity held a tea dance.

The event was held to celebrate the charity's 40th anniversary. There was also a chance for guests to have items valued by Boningtons Auctioneers of Loughton.

Leap of faith for cancer research

PLUCKY Rachel Griffiths took to the skies and raised cash for Breakthrough Breast Cancer when she completed a sponsored parachute jump.

Rachel, of Red Lion Lane, Harlow, took on the challenge after her mother successfully battled the disease twice.

The jump raised £700 which will go towards finding cures for the disease.

Coffee break

OLD Harlow Women's Institute will be holding a charity coffee morning on Saturday in aid of St Clare Hospice. The event will run from 10am-midday at the WI hall in Garden Terrace Road, Old Harlow. Entry is £1 which includes coffee and biscuits.

Race for Life

HARLOW Town Park was a sea of pink when more than 3,000 women took part in Cancer Research UK's Race for Life on Sunday.

A record number of people lined up for the event – which this year was supported by the Star – running, jogging or walking the 5km course to raise money for the charity which set a fundraising target of £193,000.

Whether they were taking part in teams, small groups or individuals they were cheered on by a large crowd of spectators.

First across the finishing line was Paula Reynolds, pictured below right, who completed the course in a time of 19 minutes and 30 seconds.

Runner June Leggat, who took part in memory of her mother who died from lung cancer, said: "All the family came along to support me and we all had a terrific day.

"The atmosphere was brilliant and the organisation of the event was great. I will most certainly be racing again next year and hope to raise more money for cancer research."

Harlow's Race for Life event manager Lucy Hynes said the day had been a great success.

"The women of Harlow deserve a really big thank you for creating such a great atmosphere and helping make the event so special.

"I hope everyone who took part in Race for Life at Harlow Town Park really enjoyed themselves.

Everyone was in a party mood on the day and it looked like everyone had a fantastic time.

"The event itself may be over but now it is vital that everyone makes one final effort by returning their sponsorship money as soon as possible to help us cross the fundraising finish line."

There is still time to sign up for the evening Race For Life which takes place at North Weald Airfield at 7.30pm on Wednesday, July 15.

Was there really ever a budget black hole?

SIR, Having obtained the details of the top council salary increases at the Civic Centre, I was surprised to find the Conservative council leader claiming these were deserved because of the high performance of chief officers.

Why, then, I wondered had the Tory administration been faced with a black hole reported as between £1.8m-£10m in their finances when they took control? It is the chief executive's duty to advise councillors and there is in the council another chief officer who is given extra pay to report to the Audit Commission should there be any problems. Had they reported and how had such a situation come about?

I therefore wrote to the chief executive under the Freedom of Information Act to obtain details of the extent and nature of the black hole. After waiting a month for a reply I was referred to various documents on the web whilst avoiding answering the questions I had asked.

I then asked further specific questions. Again, I got no reply. I have been repeatedly told I can have answers to specific questions but when I ask them they are ignored. I have now issued a formal complaint.

I tried the same approach to the district auditor at the Audit Commission. Again answers are guarded, stressing closely defined responsibilities. But she has confirmed the matter was drawn to their attention in November 2007 and that the council forecasted cost pressures of £1.8m against the 2007/8 budget.

However, in the Audit Commission's annual 2007/8 assessment in November 2008 it highlighted the final position as an overspend by £631,000 had the original budget been adopted but in reality there was actually an underspend of £417,000 on the revised budget. So it appears there was never really a black hole of even £1.8m and the council ended up with over £400,000 left from the budget which could have been used against cuts.

This is hardly the position the Conservative administration has suggested both in the press and on the Harlow Conservatives' website. It has misled the public it is supposed to serve!

Nor can the black hole be used to justify the increases in council tax, rents and cuts this year.

Passmores move will have a damaging effect on schools

SIR, The imminent move of Passmores School to the site of the demolished Brays Grove School has to be one of the most ridiculous and inept schemes ever contrived.

The governing body of Passmores has allowed itself to be persuaded to abandon its duty to the community it serves in pursuit of some vain, glorious ego trip.

The facts are quite simple. There are no statutory educational reasons for the closure of Passmores. Quite the opposite in fact. Passmores School sits centrally within a ring of local areas that are officially classified as being in multi-deprivation.

That may come as a shock to many Star readers but it has been that way for some years now. The classification is the result of the measurement of eight core categories used to quantify the quality of life experienced in the 54 'super output areas' that make up Harlow.

Approximately one quarter of them surround Passmores School and they largely have the lowest scores, not only in Harlow but Essex. Harlow also has one or two such areas that get into the lower national statistics.

It is universally acknowledged that getting a good education is the main pathway out of such circumstances. For the Passmores/Toddbrook and west Harlow community this will become more difficult when the current excellent schooling provided at Passmores moves away to the south east border of the town.

Incidentally, the main reason why Brays Grove School closed was nothing to do with its recent educational achievements. It was because the exercise of local parental choice allowed them to send their children to other schools rather than Brays Grove, which was seen as educationally unpopular and was subsequently closed for lack of pupils.

That locality is now to be rewarded for not supporting Brays Grove School with a brand new state-of-the-art school, certainly at the expense of Passmores/Toddbrook and almost certainly with damaging effects to the rest of Harlow's schools, both junior and senior.

The one remaining unanswered question is this: why was it so important to get Passmores School off its present site? It has been asked many times; perhaps we could now have the answer.

Jim Rogers

My research has also shown that the council has a long way to go before it can claim to practice the spirit of open government or indeed the letter of the Freedom of Information Act. Nevertheless, I plan to use the act to discover more.

The Tories have only themselves to blame

SIR, Harlow Conservatives seem keen to blame the UKIP candidate for their loss of Staple Tye to the Liberal Democrats in the recent by-election (Star, May 7).

UKIP took 66 votes and Liberal Democrat John Strachan won the seat with a majority of 60. The Conservatives assume that everyone who voted for UKIP would have voted for the Conservatives if the UKIP candidate had not stood. They have no evidence for this.

In fact the Conservatives lost a massive 300 votes in Staple Tye compared to the election last May while all the other parties gained votes.

The Conservatives can't seriously use UKIP as a sticking plaster to cover up the haemorrhage of Tory votes. The Conservatives' failure stems from their own unpopular and incompetent policies of service cuts and charges.

They have lost the confidence of the public of Harlow, and the result in Staple Tye is the first electoral evidence of it.

Councillor Lorna Spenceley
Spring Hills, Harlow

Poll result is a clear warning

SIR, I am writing to express my heartfelt thanks to the voters of Staple Tye for putting their faith in me and electing me to serve as their voice on the council.

It is a great privilege to be able to represent them and I will do my utmost to fulfil the great trust they have put in me. Whether they voted for me or not, I have been elected to serve every single person in Staple Tye and I will endeavour to work hard for them all.

During the last year we have taken our roving surgeries across Staple Tye to enable residents to access councillors and the Liberal Democrat team for any issues they had. This year we will be expanding so that we visit every estate regularly, along with more fixed surgeries at more locations providing even more access and opportunity to voice their opinions.

This by-election has sent a clear message to the administration – you are there to listen and to serve the people. Well I will listen and, although I may not always agree, I will make sure that the residents of Staple Tye are heard.

Joys of Harlow on bike or foot

SIR, As a resident of Harlow these past four decades I find myself in agreement with your correspondent, Brian Hopcroft (Letters, May 7).

This is a fine town with fewer problems than most. I travel around the town on foot or by bike all the time and never come across the problems alluded to in the letter from the correspondent that sparked Mr Hopcroft's reply.

Harlow is a joy to walk and cycle around, much nicer than driving! Where else can you be so close to a town centre and still be in a truly rural setting?

I suggest your readers take advantage of the fact that National Bike Week takes place in Harlow between June 13-21. The CTC, the UK's national cyclists' organisation, will be organising rides every day that week, mostly within the town. Why not get out there and enjoy Harlow at its best.

John Curry
Old Orchard, Harlow

Let's boycott Euro elections

SIR, The European elections will be coming soon and MEPs will be after our vote.

These anonymous politicians are of no use to electors. You should ask yourself what have they done for you.

Many of the problems we have in this country have been caused by laws passed in Europe which we have never voted for. It appears to be a luxury rest home for politicians who are past their sell-by date and whose interference in our lives we could well do without.

We were promised a vote on the euro constitution which has not been kept, nor will it be as they know the ordinary people have more sense.

We can make our protest by not wasting our time voting for these parasites. This would also be a warning to our present politicians of all parties – change or be kicked out.

A.J. Harrison
Cock Green, Harlow

Tax burden of Budget bungle

SIR, I realise Bill Rammell is a Foreign Office minister and has to frequently travel around the globe, but after his recent comments regarding the Budget it's no wonder people ask what planet he and this Labour government are living on?

I met a couple in Bush Fair, one of whom had just been made redundant. He is now one of more than 2.1 million unemployed and was finding it tough even to get a part-time job. The empty shops in Broad Walk and elsewhere, not forgetting the huge house repossession rates in Harlow, just show the damage the Government's economic policies have done.

The Budget, far from alleviating the problem, makes a bad situation even worse. Every child born in Harlow and the surrounding villages will come into this world with a debt of £22,500. If this were not bad enough, not only has the Government increased taxes yet again – on fuel, alcohol and tobacco – but every person earning just over £20,000 will have to pay increased National Insurance.

The tax increases will amount to £1,000 on every Harlow family over the next two years.

This should have been a Budget that got to grips with national debt, now at the worst level since the Second World War. It should have offered tax cuts for small firms to take on new employees and a proper national loan guarantee scheme to get credit flowing again.

Above all, it should have set the path to more efficient lower tax economy whilst protecting vital services.

It is a great shame that Labour's budget was such a missed opportunity to put things right.

Court battle looms over housing plans

Fancy dress abseilers raise cash for hospice

FUNDRAISERS with a head for heights headed for the Harlow outdoors pursuits centre to take part in a charity abseil in aid of St Clare Hospice on Tuesday evening. The event, organised by centre volunteers

Katie Clark, pictured above, and Toni Stocker, saw five people don fancy dress before descending from the top of the building as many times as they could within an hour. In total 30 descents were completed. Phil Wardle, senior instructor at the Burnt Mill Lane centre, said: "We don't know how much was raised yet as money is still being collected but they all seemed to have a good time." (photo: HAR054157)

PLANS to expand Harlow into East Herts by building thousands of new homes will be under the spotlight at the High Court on Monday.

Hertfordshire County Council is challenging the development proposals included in the East of England Plan in a legal battle which could cost in the region of £50,000.

The legal challenge comes after the Government published the regional spatial strategy for the East of England in May last year which said there was a need to build at least 83,200 new homes in Hertfordshire by 2021 and 16,000 more in the Harlow area – 10,000 on open countryside to the north of the town.

The plan has angered campaigners who say the Green Belt should be safeguarded.

Herts County Council is hoping to stop the development by lodging the High Court challenge which questions the process that led to strategic growth being proposed at Harlow North, Hatfield, Welwyn Garden City and Hemel Hempstead.

By LOUISE SASSOON, News Editor
sassoonly@hertssexnews.co.uk

It also wants the court to potentially quash housing requirements at five of the eastern districts of the county because of infrastructure constraints at the Rye Meads waste water treatment facility near Stanstead Abbots, which also serves Harlow.

An independent study due to be published later this month estimates that it will cost £7.5bn to meet the infrastructure needs of the housing growth proposed for the area in the East of England Plan up to 2031.

Previously, Harlow Conservative Parliamentary hopeful Robert Halfon said his party would shelve the plan if the Tories came to power.

"Time and time again local people contact me worried about the Government's plans to concrete over our Green Belt with thousands of extra houses," he said.

"The Conservative view is that local people should decide where extra housing goes, not faceless bureaucrats or Gordon Brown."

Police re-arrest murder suspect

POLICE have been questioning a 26-year-old man after he was re-arrested on suspicion of murdering disabled pensioner Jennifer Macaree outside her Harlow flat.

Detectives spent yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) quizzing the suspect after detaining him when he answered bail at a police station.

They had initially released him pending further inquiries after he was arrested in connection with the murder in March.

A 62-year-old man and a 22-year-old man arrested in connection with the case in March were released without charge after answering bail at police stations last week.

Man (56) cleared of pistol charge

A VEHICLE exporter accused of possessing a .22 Browning pistol with intent to cause fear of violence has been cleared the charge.

The prosecution offered no evidence against Francis Monk (56), of Malkin Drive, Harlow, when he appeared at Chelmsford Crown Court on Monday for the start of the trial.

At previous hearings the court had been told the allegation arose out of business dealings involving Nigerians and a £10,000 car.

Trucker tricked into giving bank details at bogus interview

A TRUCK driver is warning others about a suspected conman who he claims is advertising non-existent jobs on the internet and then asking successful applicants for their bank details.

Police are investigating after a number of drivers were said to have been tricked by the advert for driving jobs at a haulage company based in Harlow.

Applicants were invited to an interview at a "public location" and told to take with them their driving licence and passport. Those who are offered the job are asked for their bank details in order that their salary can be paid directly into their account.

One driver – Tony Hearn (47) of Doddinghurst near Brentwood – said: "I met this man at McDonalds in Harlow and we had an interview. It's not unusual for lorry drivers to have interviews in places like that so I thought nothing of it.

"He offered me the job and I accepted and phoned my boss to say I was packing up work. I gave him my account details and sort code and was told to meet him at the same place the next day with a photocopy of my driving licence which he needed to send to the insurance firm.

"I turned up the next day and waited and waited but he didn't appear."

Mr Hearn said three other drivers were also waiting in the restaurant for the man and all said they had given him their bank details.

Although it is understood no money has been taken from any of the bank accounts, police are warning people not to reveal sensitive financial information unless they know the person to whom they are giving it can be trusted.

They are also investigating to see if any offence has been committed.

Mr Hearn added: "It's just worrying this man is out there doing things like this and knowing he has all my details.

"I think he gets kicks out of people jacking in their jobs because he was smirking as I was on the phone to my boss telling him I was leaving."

Chipping in with art ideas

BURNT MILL: Pupils proved they were a chip off the creative block when they rolled up their sleeves for some hands-on art at a sculpture workshop.

Artist Will Spankie, who has been commissioned by Harlow Art Trust, Harlow Renaissance Ltd and Harlow Council to create the replacement sculpture for the Town Park paddling pool, visited the school so that young people could have an input into the design of the piece.

He worked with Year 8 pupils on their own stone carvings before they created their personal designs for the shoal of fish which will form part of the circular sculpture to replace the vandalised Hilary Frew work Two Children On A Rock in the paddling pool.

The project was a winner in Harlow Renaissance's annual Harlow Hotspots competition, supported by the Star. Financial support has been provided by Essex County Council. (s)

Welcome for Czech visitors

STEWARDS: Pupils hoped to make Czech mates when they were visited by a delegation from the eastern European country.

Students and staff from the Zakladni Art School in Havirov, who are currently having their work displayed in the Gibberd Gallery, dropped in at the Parnell Road school to spend a day in the art department.

They took part in photography and an art and design lesson during the day, which was part of a programme of events designed to develop Stewards students' knowledge about international venues and cultures.

Next month the school will send a selection of students' art work for display in an international exhibition within the Czech Republic.

● THE spotlight fell on Year 11 drama students when they had a chance to showcase their achievements in front of family and friends for the last time before leaving the school.

The school's head of drama, Di Johnson, said: "We are extremely proud of the commitment and dedication our Year 11 students have shown to their courses and in school productions over the past five years. They will be missed."

Do you have what it takes to become a school governor?

PEOPLE interested in becoming a school governor are being asked to step up to the plate as Essex County Council looks to fill 73 vacancies at schools within the Harlow district.

The area has the highest vacancy rate in the county – 14 per cent compared to the county average of eight per cent – prompting County Hall to run a recruitment drive to remedy the situation.

The campaign will run throughout this month and will culminate in a drop-in day at Harlow Library on May 30 from 10am-2pm

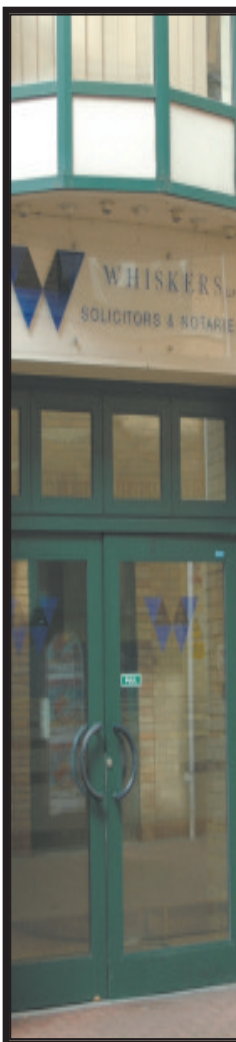

Local governors will be on hand to answer questions and share their enthusiasm for the role.

Debbi Botham, governor services officer at Essex County Council, said:

"Applicants must have a passion to make the school great and the best it can be.

"We welcome applications from people in all walks of life because having a really good mix of people means governing bodies are full of different viewpoints, experiences, skills and ideas."

To find out more about vacancies, talk to your local school or call governor services on (01245) 437599.

Travelling back in time on field trip

YEAR 10 students from schools across the town took a trip back in time during a huge archaeological event.

The day, held in Little Hallingbury near Bishop's Stortford, gave pupils the chance to excavate pits and record and label their finds.

The three-day project was led by Time Team's Carenza Lewis and experts from Cambridge University's archaeology department.

After completing their field trip the students travelled to the university to discuss and analyse what they had found.

Team-building at college media day

HARLOW COLLEGE: A group of 50 gifted and talented pupils from six local schools descended on the Velizy Avenue site to get a taste of what a newspaper of the future might look like.

Before they had a chance to analyse traditional print newspapers and discuss where the industry may be heading and what the format of the future might be, they had the chance to build team bonds by taking part in workshops and exercises.

They then had chance to explore different areas of the media such as film and photography as well as hear what a job in media entails. The event was part of a wider media day organised by the college to drum up interest in the industry.

Six arrested in Stow operation

SIX people have been arrested after police launched a crackdown on anti-social behaviour in a Harlow shopping precinct.

The joint police and council operation, which included extra high-visibility patrols by officers, was mounted after residents living in The Stow complained of youths hanging around the area.

The six people were arrested for various offences including drug possession and criminal damage.

Neighbourhood policing inspector Tom Mitchell said:

"The operation has resulted in an impressive 76 per cent drop in anti-social behaviour in the area.

"I would like to thank residents for contacting our neighbourhood policing team to report suspicious activity. This information led to a further arrest for burglary."

Tory minister to visit Motability

A HARLOW-based charity which supplies cars, powered wheelchairs and scooters to disabled people will be visited by the Shadow Minister for Works and Pensions today (Thursday). Conservative MP Mark Harper wants to find out more about the work of Motability when he meets representatives of the charity at its offices in Roydon Road.

Drugs 'suspect' hid cocaine in buttocks

Birthday celebration for birthing centre

MUMS and toddlers were reunited with the dedicated midwives who helped them through labour at a special celebration marking the second anniversary of Princess Alexandra Hospital's low-risk birthing unit.

The purpose-built centre, which has already been used by 780 mums in the two years it has been open, offers a choice of delivery to women with uncomplicated pregnancies.

With two birthing rooms – one equipped with a birthing pool – and facilities for partners and relatives, the 24-hour service is open 52 weeks of the year and staffed by a team of midwives.

Anna Peacock, community midwifery manager for the PAH NHS Trust, said: "We designed the centre to provide a home-from-home atmosphere for women to deliver their babies.

"It has more than exceeded our expectations in terms of popularity and success."

A MAN who fought with police as he tried to flush cocaine concealed in his buttocks down a toilet at Harlow Police Station has been given a suspended jail sentence.

James Sinclair (33), of Berecroft, Harlow, had concealed nine packets of cocaine which were discovered when officers carried out a strip search.

He pleaded guilty at Chelmsford Crown Court to possessing 6.9 grammes of cocaine, obstructing police and assaulting an officer.

Alan Compton, prosecuting, told the court that on May 29 last year police officers saw Sinclair in a car with a suspected drugs dealer. The vehicle was pursued and stopped.

Sinclair was arrested and taken to Harlow Police Station where officers suspected he was carrying drugs and decided to carry out a complete strip search.

Mr Compton said the packets of cocaine were found when Sinclair tried to move to a toilet to dispose of them. A struggle ensued during which an officer was knocked to the wall causing a momentary loss of consciousness and the drugs fell to the ground.

Ian Boyes, representing Sinclair, said in mitigation the defendant was in a state of "deep despair" at the time of the offences and said the assault was not intentional.

Passing sentence, Judge Anthony Goldstaub said: "This was a disgraceful episode. You were in possession of drugs worth about £500 which, I accept, were for your own consumption.

"Possession of drugs is a serious matter, as is assaulting and obstructing police. They are entitled to protection."

Sinclair was sentenced to nine months in jail suspended for 12 months and ordered to keep out of licenced premises for three months. He was also ordered to complete a drug rehabilitation programme.

Town firefighter is honoured for his long service

A FIREFIGHTER from Old Harlow has been honoured for long service.

Mark Roythorne, pictured right, was among 12 people presented with medals for completing 20 years with the Essex brigade.

Chief Fire Officer David Johnson, who also received his long service medal, said:

"Officers like Mark are the backbone of Essex County Fire and Rescue Service.

"They have given 20 years of exemplary service to the communities of Essex and in that time have developed a wealth of knowledge and experience which they can bring to bear in protecting and serving those communities.

"This medal recognises their achievement and is presented by us on behalf of the Queen and a grateful community."

New group to strengthen community ties

POWER has been given back to the people with the formation of a new group designed to help set up services and secure funding for voluntary and faith sectors in the town.

The Harlow Social Action Council was launched last week with the task of finding out how residents want certain services to be delivered. It will also bring together the various charity and community organisations operating in Harlow and seek to recruit additional volunteers to help them with the work they do.

Harlow councillor Joel Charles, vice chairman of the environment and community committee, said: "This is a new umbrella organisation for Harlow's faith and voluntary groups which will be a positive step towards closer co-operation between all in our community and which will help push forward social activity in our town."

COUNCIL chiefs in Harlow are pressing the Government to revise proposals to slash rent hikes by half amid fears it will badly affect the authority's housing services.

Under the plans the council would have to reduce rent increases from an average of £5.03 to £2.12 in return for being reimbursed some of the shortfall.

However, the authority claims it would lose more than £400,000 in rent income a year by accepting the deal.

Simon Carter, chairman of the council's policy and resources committee, said: "We feel that this is not in our tenants best interests as it would lead to cuts in the level of services.

"Of course we want to be able to pass on rent reductions to our tenants and keep rents affordable in these difficult times but we can't when the figures just don't add up and vital housing services would get cut.

"This is a disappointing situation for the council. We may lose out because we have followed the Government's guidance on rent restructuring and we and our tenants could be penalised for it."

He said the council was seeking an urgent revision of the offer to ensure the authority and its tenants were no worse off in implementing the reduction in rent increases.

Harlow MP Bill Rammell said he had written to housing minister Margaret Beckett requesting clarification on what the implications of the scheme would be but added the council always claims it does not receive sufficient support.

"I remain of the view that slashing in half guideline rent increases for council tenants was absolutely the right decision for the Government to make during these difficult times and I will continue to work with Harlow Council to ensure that they can take advantage of this," he said.

Waves of sea power

GIANT rubber sea snakes which convert wave energy into electricity could soon be providing Britain with a new source of renewable power.

Made from a mixture of fabric and natural rubber, the Anaconda – so-called because of its resemblance to the enormous river-dwelling serpents of South America – harnesses the natural power of the sea and transforms it into usable energy. Tied to the seabed and floating just underneath the surface of the ocean, the 200m-long water-filled tubes 'swim' with the waves.

As a swell hits the front of the tube it creates a bulge that travels to the back, steadily gathering speed. When this bulge reaches the Anaconda's tail, the energy powers a turbine and creates electricity. Each device would cost £2m to build but would be capable of producing enough electricity to power 1,000 homes.

Scientists hope thousands of the snake-like tubes will be installed around the UK coastline to provide a clean, green and renewable alternative to more environmentally-damaging sources of energy.

As well as placing the tubes around the UK, they think similar devices could also produce environmentally-friendly energy off the coasts of America, Australia, Ireland and Japan.

Jail reprieve for man found with fake £20 notes

A CITY worker who pleaded guilty to drug and counterfeit money offences has been spared jail.

Instead Adam Williams (27), of Wharley Hook, Harlow, was given a nine-month suspended jail sentence at Chelmsford Crown Court on Thursday.

He was also ordered to undergo a drug rehabilitation course, made the subject of a 12-month supervision order and told to complete 120 hours of community work.

Williams had pleaded guilty to possessing 139 counterfeit £20 notes and £115 worth of cocaine on November 14 last year.

Ian Boyce, representing Williams, said "He purchased these counterfeit notes and in the morning the shock of what he had done sobered him up quickly.

"He then buried his head in the sand and instead of taking them to police and explaining what happened he simply put them in a box and left them in his house."

He said the behaviour was out of character and said the thrills of working in the City, coupled with the death of his father, had led to his downfall. The court heard Williams had no previous convictions.

Diamond couples still love-struck!

By LOUISE SASSOON

News Editor

sassoonl@hertsessexnews.co.uk

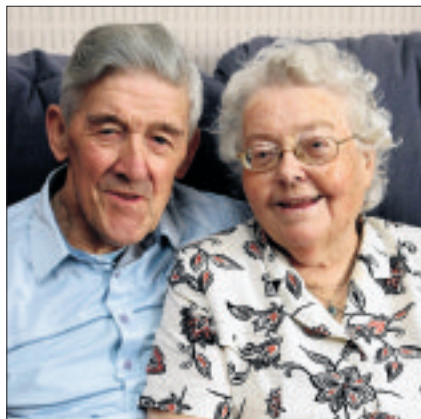

TWO couples proved their love has lost none of its sparkle when they celebrated their diamond wedding anniversaries

Reg and Joan Fielding, of Greenhills, Harlow, toasted 60 years of marriage last week while Lewis and Freda Haydon, of Brockles Mead, Harlow, are preparing to mark the occasion on May 24.

Mr and Mrs Fielding, both 83, knew they were made for each other when they began writing to one another during the Second World War.

Three-and-a-half years later Reg declared his love for his sweetheart – whom he had only seen in a photograph and had not yet met in person – and told he would return to marry her.

The couple, who moved to Harlow in 1953, have four children –

DIAMONDS ARE FOREVER: Left, Reg and Joan Fielding (photo: HAR0553420) and, right, Lewis and Freda Haydon (photo: HAR0553436) are celebrating their 60th wedding anniversaries this month

Susan, Jennifer, Stuart and Deborah.

"It's been beautiful and I wouldn't change if for the world," said Reg.

Mr and Mrs Haydon, both 79, are planning to celebrate their anniversary with a garden party. They met in the village where they both lived as youngsters and kept in touch when Lewis was sent to war.

After the war he continued to serve in the Armed Forces and during their 60 years of married life the couple have lived in various parts of the world, including Cyprus where their first son, Phillip, was born.

They have four other children – Sandra, Diana, Martin and Joanna.

Freda said: "We enjoy being together very much."

Lock doors or you may be visited by burglars

THE number of burglaries in Harlow has doubled.

On average two properties a day are now being broken into and in many cases entry is gained through unlocked doors.

Crime reduction officer Graham Anthony said: "Some burglars are well versed in opening front doors that are not properly locked, especially UPVC doors. They are particularly attracted to properties with nice cars parked outside or on the drive."

He added: "Imagine the upset when you get up in the morning to find that someone has been in, taken your valuables and used the car keys to steal your car and sometimes have left your front door open.

"Only by locking with the key are you fully securing your door. Set the alarm if you have one and don't leave car keys, wallets or handbags in a handy place for burglars to get at."

Midnight Walk's volunteer army

WITH more than 600 women now registered to take part in this year's Midnight Walk, things are busy behind the scenes at walk headquarters based at St Clare Hospice.

Volunteers are working alongside the charity's fundraising team to open the daily delivery of registration forms and make sure that walker's information packs and sponsor forms are being sent out.

"It's getting busy now with only a month left until registration closes," said events fundraiser Tracey Meale. "We are still urging anyone who has a form sitting on the side to round up a group of girl friends, fill out the form and send it in before it's too late."

"Last year was so much fun. I took part before getting my job here at St Clare. My friends and I dressed up as pink angels and had so much fun with the other ladies that took part."

The registration deadline is June 12 and the walk takes place on Saturday, June 20. So if you want to take part in the Walk – which is once again being supported by the Star – you have just 29 days to register.

"Everyone told us after last year's event that they really enjoyed it and would be back in 2009 with even more friends and larger teams," said Tracey. "The message now is don't delay, get signed up."

"It's really easy; you can call us for a form, go online or complete the form in the Star to request a registration application. Once you have the form, get it filled out and sent back to us so we can order your goodie bags and T-shirts ready for the big pink night of fun."

But it's not only walkers that the organisers are seeking. "We couldn't run this event without the support and kind commitment of our volunteers," said Tracey. "Last year lots of people agreed to help in various ways, from working in the office leading up to the walk to manning the stalls on the night and marshalling the route."

I would like anyone who isn't going to walk but would like to support us by volunteering to give me a call on (01279) 773750.

"As a little reward, Nandos in the Water Gardens is offering our volunteers 20 per cent off on the night."

Sign up today and help to paint the town pink

HUNDREDS of people have already registered to take part in this year's Midnight Walk but hundreds more are needed if the £120,000 target is to be reached.

Tracey Meale, event fundraiser for St Clare, said: "We would love to see the sign-up forms (below) flooding in next week. Alternatively, people wanting to take part can sign up on our website."

The 10km walk, which starts in Harlow town centre, follows a planned route along the town's streets and cycle paths. It is open to both men and women, as well as children aged over 14. Those aged 14 and 15 must be accompanied by a responsible adult who is registered to take part in the walk.

"We want to make this year even bigger than last year's hugely successful night," said Tracey. "Why not get a group of friends together and sign up to have a fun night and paint the town pink!"

Stepping out in style in anniversary show

BUDDING ballerinas and talented tap-dancers will be among those strutting their stuff to celebrate the 25th anniversary of a local dance school later this month.

Makin' Steps, which is based at the Potter Street Community Centre, will mark its milestone year with a song and dance spectacular at Harlow Sportcentre on May 28.

The show will feature 150 of its 500 current students, performing their own routines accompanied by a professional live band.

Showcasing ballet, street jazz, hip hop, tap and modern dance, the birthday extravaganza will include routines set to the music ranging from current pop princess Lady Gaga to soul sensation Stevie Wonder, with performers as young as five eager to show off their skills.

The students have been rehearsing for the show since January and dance tutor Scott Simpson said the cast were getting very excited about putting the finishing touches to their routines.

"This will be a full-stage production which transforms the sports hall into a concert-style venue with a massive multi-level stage. For many of our students this will be the biggest show they have ever participated in.

"We wanted this show to be really spectacular and with amazing costumes and stunning lighting and visual effects to complement the fantastic song and dance routines, it certainly promises to be one unforgettable birthday party."

The school has taught thousands of students since it was formed in 1984 by Scott's mother, Margaret Wright. Many of its young protégés have gone on to enjoy successful careers as professional dancers.

Scott added: "It's all very well being good at one genre of dance but to be in with a chance of making it as a professional you have to be able to turn your hand to any style given, which is why we offer a wide variety of dance and theatre styles which enable our students to be very versatile."

● The show runs from May 28-30 at Harlow Sportcentre, with Thursday and Friday evening performances starting at 7pm and a Saturday matinee at 3pm. Tickets cost £16 (£13 for under-16s) from (01279) 304937.

DRAMA: Moot House Players begin a three-night run of Aristophanes' bawdy Greek farce Lysistrata at Moot Hall in The Stow tonight (Thursday). Fed up with their husbands' preoccupation with war, a band of feisty Hellenic women turn the bedroom into a battleground by refusing their men sex until peace is declared. The play begins at 8pm and tickets cost £8 (£6 concessions) from (01279) 639170.

MUSIC: Tribute act The Cavern Beatles come to The Playhouse tonight (Thursday) in a flurry of mop-tops, scouse cheek and striking musicianship. Drawing on the Fab Four's extensive back catalogue of hits, the band promise to put on a show to rival even their heroes' legendary performances. The concert begins at 7.30pm and tickets cost £16 (£15 concessions) from (01279) 431945.

DRAMA: Sawbridgeworth Players' adaptation of John Osborne's tragicomic masterpiece The Entertainer opens at Victoria Hall Theatre tonight (Thursday) for a three-night run. Frank and uncompromising, the play follows washed-up comedian Archie Rice as he struggles to eke out a living in the twilight years of music hall. Performances begin at 8pm and tickets cost £7.50 (£6 concessions) from 07752 161802.

MUSIC: Loveable 'rockney' chums Chas & Dave are currently enjoying a new lease of life following some storming sets at music festivals last year. See them at The Playhouse tomorrow (Friday) for a good old fashioned knees-up. The gig starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £17.50 (£15 concessions) from (01279) 431945.

DANCE: Charity dance extravaganza Strictly Dance waltzes into The Playhouse this weekend with a feast of ballet, jazz, modern and tap routines choreographed by respected professional tutors and featuring performances from children aged four and upwards. With all proceeds going to Great Ormond Street Hospital, the show begins at 7pm on Saturday and 3pm on Sunday. Tickets cost £10 (£9 concessions) from (01279) 431945.

MUSIC: Harlow Chorus presents an evening of showtunes at All Saints Church in Bishop's Stortford on Saturday with highlights from some of the greatest musicals ever to grace the Broadway stage. With excerpts from shows including Guys & Dolls, My Fair Lady and South Pacific, the evening promises to be a toe-tapping treat. The concert begins at 7.30pm and tickets are available from (01279) 362440, priced £13 (£11 concessions) each.

DRAMA: Award-winning local theatre group Global Productions begins a hilarious three-night run of John Dighton's classic scholarly farce The Happiest Days Of Your Life at The Playhouse Studio on Wednesday. When the teaching staff of Hilary Hall School for Boys are informed their post-war haven of male domination is under threat from girls' school St Swithins, all hell breaks loose. Performances begin at 8pm and tickets cost £10 (£8 concessions) from (01279) 431945.

COMEDY: Shakespearean tragedy is given a comedy makeover at The Playhouse on Wednesday in hilarious new show Ha Ha Hamlet. It's codpieces a-go-go as the Ha Ha Boys open their suitcase of weird and wonderful props to tackle one of the Bard's finest plays. The performance begins at 8pm and tickets cost £12 from (01279) 431945.

Monsters of rock herald the return of the Seattle sound

REVIEW
DINOSAUR PILE-UP
The Square, Harlow

WE'VE kicked open the garage doors, reawakened to the blues, pretended to be punks, sharpened up as modern-day mods, tightened up as lapsed rudeboys, tripped into a forest of lysergic loveliness with the new-folkies and ridden on the crest of a new New Wave. Now it's time to catch the next bandwagon to Seattle ... and be sure to wear grease in your hair. It's official: grunge is back and its name is Dinosaur Pile-Up. It still wears more plaid than a lumberjack, still does that quiet/loud/quiet/EAR-BLEEDINGLY LOUD thing and still forgets to shave, but deep down it's a whole new beast.

Gone is the apathy and despair. In its place some restless, cataclysmic force bubbles and broods beneath the surface, daring to be unleashed. Thankfully there are three gleefully cacophonous gatekeepers only too happy to oblige. Angrily agitating ferocious, adrenaline-soaked buzzsaw riffs and thunderous, post-apocalyptic rhythms, they construct a thrilling, nigh-on impenetrable wall of sound louder than war, dinosaurs, warring dinosaurs or even a war involving bionically-enhanced dinosaurs, armed with an advanced intellect and thermonuclear weapons.

With Matt Bigland's gloriously gravelled slacker drawl acting as the perfect anchor for the group's more unhinged moments, each tightly-coiled song - from the fist-pumpingly raucous anthem My Rock N Roll to the Pavement-esque guitar thump of I Get My Direction From - is a thing of grizzled, breathless beauty sprinkled liberally with a live dose of testosterone-induced priapic posturing for good measure.

Put simply, this is one band of volatile bright young things who absolutely live up to their name. If they fail to swallow 2009 whole without getting heartburn, I'll eat my oversized plaid shirt, stop washing my hair and listen to Killdozer on an endless loop until my brain melts.

CORALINE. There's no place like home in this first ever stop-motion animated feature created in stereoscopic 3D. Coraline Jones moves into the Pink Palace Apartments with her writer mother and father. To stave off boredom she explores her creaky, new home and meets the neighbours. Then, one night, she uncovers a secret door leading from the living room to a parallel reality called Other World.

X-MEN ORIGINS: WOLVERINE. Hugh Jackman sharpens his retractable adamantium claws in this spin-off from the X-Men films, expanding the back story of the franchise's most popular and enigmatic character.

HANNAH MONTANA - THE MOVIE. Perky pop princess Miley Cyrus searches for love in this sentimental rites of passage drama, interspersed with thigh-slapping musical sequences.

MONSTERS v ALIENS (2D). A green, glowing meteorite lands on fun-loving Susan Murphy on her wedding day and she grows in size until she stands an impressive 49ft tall. Wedding guests flee and Susan is held hostage by the military in a secret government compound.

BEVERLY HILLS CHIHUAHUA. Chloe is the four-legged companion of cosmetics doyenne Vivian Ashe who lavishes all of her love on the snooty Chihuahua. When Vivian is called away to Europe on business, the dotting owner entrusts her most prized possession to her selfish niece who only wants to party with her friends sending Chloe away from her swanky surroundings to a dog-eat-dog world.

HOTEL FOR DOGS. Andi and her younger brother Bruce have passed from one foster home to the next, eventually landing up with musicians Carl and Lois Scudder, who care more about rehearsals than feeding two brats. So Andi and Bruce learn to take care of themselves and their Jack Russell terrier Friday.

ANGELS & DEMONS
certificate 12A, 2h18m

IN various religious texts and works of art, angels and demons are regarded as the messengers to the afterlife in either Heaven or Hell.

Ron Howard's action-packed film, adapted from the best-seller by Dan Brown, hovers somewhere between the two extremes, jettisoning the ponderous dialogue which blighted The Da Vinci Code in favour of a protracted game of cat and mouse around Rome.

The pace is certainly quicker by virtue of the lean script by Akiva Goldsman and David Koepp, which shifts the timeline of the source novel.

Thus, Angels & Demons is now a sequel rather than a prequel to The Da Vinci Code, which is referenced in a couple of lines of throwaway dialogue when characters remark on the strained relationship between Harvard professor Robert Langdon (Tom Hanks) and the church.

The altered chronology matters little since Hanks is the sole returning member of cast as the urbane symbologist whose encyclopaedic knowledge of secret brotherhoods proves invaluable in saving the Holy City from destruction.

When a respected research scientist is found dead in his particle physics laboratory in Geneva, his chest branded with a strange symbol, Langdon is summoned to investigate.

He links the symbol to a secret society called the Illuminati, which was thought to have died out centuries ago.

In a chilling twist, the dead man's colleague – Italian scientist Vittoria Vetra (Ayelet Zurer) – reveals that a canister full of antimatter was stolen from the laboratory and is now primed to explode somewhere within the Vatican.

Langdon and Vetra search for clues under the watchful eye of the Camerlengo (Ewan McGregor), the acting head of state, and the worldly Cardinal Strauss (Armin Mueller-Stahl). Adding to their woes, the preteriti – the four Cardinals most likely to be elected Pope – are all missing, kidnapped by an assassin (Nikolaj Lie Kaas) with a horrific master plan.

Angels & Demons is thankfully shorter than its predecessor and ultimately more enjoyable, trading in the history lesson for thrills. Unfortunately, by excising so much of the plot that underpins Brown's book, Langdon is reduced to a glorified tour guide.

Production values are high throughout and the big set-pieces well orchestrated, including a hilarious and unforgettable moment in St Peter's Square that proves what goes up must come down.

It's Star Trek, Jim, but not as we know it

STAR TREK
certificate 12A
2h06m

THIS is the maiden voyage of a shiny new Starship Enterprise and its mission to revitalise a flagging yet beloved franchise and to boldly go where so many have gone before.

Star Trek is a big budget re-imagining of the series, exploring the formative years of Kirk, Spock and their interplanetary cohorts.

Ardent fans of the universe created by Gene Roddenberry in the 1960s will take issue with some of the changes here.

The new Star Trek also lacks an imposing villain and two hours simply isn't long enough to establish all of the crew in sufficient detail, but action sequences orchestrated at breakneck speed should satisfy most.

CENTURION PROPERTY, 10 GREENWAY BUSINESS CENTRE, HARLOW BUSINESS PARK, HARLOW, CM19 5QE

Commercial Property Feature

Windmill Works offer six offices in rural location

WINDMILL Works, a 1,800 sq ft building with plenty of character, exposed timbers and brickwork in a lovely rural location, is being offered for lease at a price of £10 per sq ft by Sawbridgeworth agent Wright & Co. The commercial property, with B1 usage, is in Keeres Green, Aythorpe Roding, between the market towns of Bishop's Stortford and Great Dunmow (postcode CM6 1PQ).

Chelmsford, with its multiple shopping centre, is only a short distance away, and both Stortford and Chelmsford have mainline railway stations leading to London Liverpool Street.

The property offers six office areas, kitchen, two sets of toilets, parking for 15-20 cars, two double cart lodges and Cat 5 network cabling.

In detail, the accommodation comprises:

OFFICE AREA 1 — reception hall, 12ft x 11ft 8in, with exposed timbers, strip lighting, telephone and cabling system, windows to front, doors to kitchen area.

OFFICE AREA 2 — 11ft 8in x 11ft 8in with window to front, strip lighting, Cat 5 cabling, wall-mounted electric heater and door to:

LOBBY AREA — with downstairs storage, carpeted stairs to first floor, fire exit, door to:

TOILETS with opaque window to rear, pedestal wash hand basin, flush WC, cupboard housing lagged cylinder.

KITCHENETTE — 12ft x 6ft with window to front, rolled edge work surface, base- and eye-level storage, inset 1¼-sink unit with drainer and mixer, wall-mounted heater, leading to:

STORAGE AREA — 13ft 2in x 8ft with door to rear, access to:

OFFICE AREA 3 — 23ft x 13ft with windows on two aspects, feature bay window, fire exit to front, wall-mounted electric heater, feature fireplace, Cat 5 cabling and telephone points, second staircase to first floor.

FIRST FLOOR: OFFICE AREA 4 — 23ft x 13ft 2in with windows on two aspects, electric heater, Cat 5 cabling, step down.

FIRST FLOOR: OFFICE AREA 5 — 28ft x 11ft 6in with windows on two aspects, staircase down to lobby area, exposed brickwork and timbers, wall-mounted electric heater, Cat 5 cabling.

FIRST FLOOR TOILETS — with pedestal wash hand basin, flush WC, windows on two aspects.

FIRST FLOOR: OFFICE AREA 6 — 11ft 8in x 7ft with windows and slightly restricted head height on two aspects, light and power.

Outside, to the front of the property is parking for about 15 cars, two open-fronted cart stores, lighting and grassed areas with mature trees. There is a postbox to the front of the railings and mail is collected once a day Monday to Friday.

The lease details are to be negotiated. The property is offered with immediate vacant possession.

The Governments My Choice HomeBuy Scheme

£725 per month to rent versus £540 per month to buy

My Choice HomeBuy is the government's low cost home ownership programme. Secure a loan for up to 50% of a One Bedroom Apartment at £167,000 and pay £417.70 per month (based on a sample mortgage at 3.48% for 25 years). The remaining 50% is secured through the scheme and is currently payable at 1.75% giving a total monthly payment of £539.47. The average monthly rental of a One Bedroom Apartment at Fawkon Walk is £725 based on current rental figures. Offer is subject to status and Terms & Conditions apply. Please ask Sales advisor for further details. Your home may be repossessed if you do not keep up repayments on your mortgage.

Use your technical ability to gain an apprenticeship

EMCOR UK, part of the EMCOR Group Inc, harnesses the knowledge and experience of 30,000 skilled employees across 170 locations worldwide. EMCOR Facilities Services is one of the UK's leading providers of facilities management and technical and support services to both the private and public sectors including museums, airports, government, as well as pharmaceutical facilities.

Since 2001, we have been providing engineering services to GSK. In 2008, this portfolio was expanded to a total of seven GSK sites in the UK including Harlow, Stevenage and Ware.

At these three sites, we now have opportunities for you to become an apprentice and gain a valuable and valued building crafts trade skill.

If you (or someone you know) are a passionate, positive, technically-minded individual with (or anticipating getting this summer) grade C or above GCSEs in Maths, English and a Science subject, then we'd like to meet you.

We offer salaries in line with Heating and Ventilating Contractors' Association (HVCA) guidelines and a centralised training programme including well supported 'on-the-job' training and day / block release at Newham College in East London.

Required from 1 June 2009.

We are looking for someone to assist with a young girl of 9 who has Down Syndrome.
The position is for all day Wednesday and Thursday and Tuesday afternoons.
You will be working in partnership with the class teacher and other LSAs. Experience in Downs or Makaton would be an advantage but is not essential as training can be given.

The successful applicant will have the opportunity to work in a small, friendly, village school.
A full CRB disclosure will be undertaken by the successful candidate.

This is a fixed term contract until July 2011.
Please feel free to contact the school to have an informal discussion and look around.

Please contact Mrs L. Stephenson,
Headteacher, on 01279 718267.
Details from: Mrs J Pugh (Admin) on 01279 718267.
Closing date: 18/05/2009.
Interviews: 19/05/2009.

Epping Forest district is an area of great contrasts, from its southern boundary with Greater London, stretching northwards into the heart of rural Essex. Here, you'll find scope to further your career in a variety of different roles, each offering the rewards you'd expect from an organisation that values its people and their contribution.

HOUSING DIRECTORATE

HOME OWNERSHIP OFFICER

Salary: £16,278 - £17,626 per annum pro rata plus £790 Inner London Fringe Allowance per annum pro rata, (maximum salary increased to £18,270 per annum pro rata after five years' service)

Part-time 15 hours a week (9am - 5.30pm Thursday and Friday)

Ref: HRS/22

An additional post has been established within the Housing Directorate Home Ownership team.

This section deals with all house/land sales and leasehold properties.

The job is principally dealing with the recovery of Leasehold Service Charges; however you will be expected to cover the office in respect of any general enquiries related to the section.

The main role will be supporting the Principal Home Ownership Officer in carrying out the duties required, dealing with over 900 leasehold accounts, where the Council owns the freehold of the property.

Would you like a challenge? Are you willing to take on these duties? If you have a sound knowledge in this area of work, you could be the person we are looking for.

You will be required to work Thursdays and Fridays, however at busy times you may be asked to be flexible with this arrangement.

You will be expected to deal with varied aspects relating to Leasehold Services. We are looking for someone who is very organised and methodical in their approach, as accuracy is essential. Experience in Excel and Word is also essential.

This is a challenging post, and would suit someone who likes working with figures and is able to deal effectively with the public.

If you feel you can meet this challenge, and are willing to work hard, this could be the job for you.

The Council's flexi-time scheme applies to this post.

CARELINE OPERATOR

Salary: £14,587 - £15,570 per annum pro rata plus £790 Inner London Fringe Allowance per annum pro rata plus Night Allowance (maximum salary increased to £15,895 per annum pro rata after minimum of five years' service)

Part-time 18 hours per week plus 1.25 hours contractual overtime

Ref: HOP/26

Can you keep a cool head in an emergency? Are you a good communicator?

Yes? Then you could be the person we are looking for to fill our vacancy at the Council's Careline Control Centre, in Loughton.

We need a responsible person with a genuine concern for elderly and vulnerable people to help operate the emergency alarm service based in Loughton.

You would be answering emergency calls from people at risk within the District who summon assistance through modern two-way speech alarm equipment, and responding by alerting the necessary emergency services. Therefore, you will need calmness and initiative.

You would be required to work a shift system often alone and unsupervised involving weekends - also night and Bank Holiday working for which an allowance is payable. It would also be necessary to work additional hours on occasion to cover other staff absences, for which overtime will be paid, flexibility is therefore essential.

As the post involves some mobile duties, you must be a car owner and possess a clean full driver's licence. An essential car user's allowance will be paid for mileage incurred on official business.

This post does not attract a relocation package.

Applicants should note that this post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

Our preferred option is for candidates to apply online. Please visit our website to apply online and view all our current vacancies at: www.eppingforestdc.gov.uk/jobs
Alternatively, for an application pack please contact Human Resources, Epping
Forest District Council, Civic Offices, 323 High Street, Epping, Essex, CM16 4BZ, Tel: 01992 564433 (24 hour answer service) Please quote relevant ref. (No CVs please).

Closing date for both posts: Noon, 28 May 2009.

Working towards equal opportunities.

HIGHWAYS ACT 1980 - SECTION 116
JUNCTION OF TEMPLE MEAD AND HIGH STREET (B181), ROYDON, EPPING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 21 day of July 2009 at 12:00 Noon an application will be made by the Essex County Council as highway authority to the Harlow Magistrates' Court sitting at the Court House, Harlow, Essex CM20 1HH for an Order under section 116 of the Highways Act 1980.

The proposed Order provides for the stopping up of highway rights over an area of highway comprising 4.2 square metres or thereabouts at the junction of High Street (B181) and Temple Mead in the Parish of Roydon in the District of Epping Forest in the County of Essex as shown shaded pink on the plan No. ML/83/6/96 on the ground that the area of highway is unnecessary.

The plan showing the area of highway to be stopped up is deposited at the Essex County Council, County Hall, Chelmsford; Epping Forest District Council Offices, Civic Offices, High Street, Epping; and at Epping Library, St Johns Road, Epping where it may be inspected free of charge during normal opening hours.

On the hearing of the application any person to whom the notice has been given, any person who uses the said highway and any other person who would be aggrieved by the making of an Order applied for will have the right to be heard.

Italian job for Harlow's U-13s

Harlow U-13 29, Jesi Rugby Club 14
(Friendly)

A BIT of history was created when Harlow U-13s defeated touring Italian team Jesi Rugby Club.

It was the first time a Rams team had played an Italian side.

The match on Saturday was played in four quarters of 15 minutes each way.

Harlow debutant Alex Burns had a promising debut.

The Italian team, from the north-eastern corner of Italy near Ancona, started well with their powerful number eight breaking tackles and sprinting over the line for a try that was converted.

Jesi added another converted try and led 14-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Harlow hit back in the second quarter with Ryan Clark scoring an unconverted try.

A powerful run by Tom Cunningham saw the flanker score the hosts' second try that was unconverted and Harlow trailed 14-10 at the halfway stage.

As the visitors tired in the last quarter the Junior Rams began to break away and Connor Hatcher-Staines scored a try converted by Scott Whitby for a 17-14 lead.

In the dying minutes Harlow scored two more converted tries through Fraser Bleach. Whitby kicked one more conversion, giving the Essex side a win by 12 points.

The Junior Rams have been invited back to Jesi next year.

Marathon effort from Steadman

INTREPID Harlow Running Club member Vicky Steadman set a personal best (PB) when she was the third senior finisher in the Halstead and Essex Marathon.

She completed the race in a very creditable three hours, 41 mins and 48 secs.

Elsewhere, Dionne Jones was the first home runner and first vet 35 person to complete the first race of the Ladies Harlow 5K Series.

Last Wednesday's race was held in Harlow Town Park.

Jones was eighth in 22:20.

The second and third Harlow finishers were Katie Herrington (22:42, 11th) in her first 5km race and Steadman (22:51, 13th).

Lauren MacGregor (Orion Running Club, Chingford) won the race in 20:05.

Other Harlow results:- Kath Starr 23:35; Joanne Chung 24:32; Katie Syme 25:02; Karen Moir 26:05; Clare Williams 26:38; Gina Bailey 27:04; Alison Bull 27:25; Kim Wookey 28:27; Susan Dewen 28:51; Linda Hawkins 29:06; Denise Goodchild 29:56; Janet Webster 30:18; Debbie Coombs 31:49; Melanie Harris 35:11; Ruth O'Connor 36:58; Kuzna Jackson 41:49.

Teams are defeated

POTTER Street and Epping both lost their penultimate games in the senior premier division of the LFC Insurance Essex Olympian Football League.

A Nathan Bethell strike was not enough for Street when they lost 3-1 at Facies, for whom Shaun Farnum (2) and Danny Hayes netted. Epping, already relegated, were thrashed 8-3 at Mountnessing.

Danny Turpin (2) and Josh Albane were on target for the visitors while Sener Suavi (4), Alan Woods (3) and James Lewis scored for the home side.

Street and Epping were due to meet last night (Wednesday) to round off their league campaigns.

It's ladies day as Rams celebrate

THE women's team were given top billing when Harlow Rugby Club held their annual presentation evening.

This was in recognition of them winning their south east eastern division three title.

Friday's event was rounded off with a prize-giving ceremony.

Kerry Palmer, coach of the women's team, paid tribute to the massive commitment and support he had received from the players.

Nikki Millman who was switched to scrum-half this year was awarded Player of the Year.

She combined the attacking and defensive roles extremely well.

Centre Davina McLellan was chosen as Player's Player in recognition of her attacking role and her brilliant tackling, while high-scoring winger Abi Perry won the Most Improved Player prize.

Her contribution included a hat-trick of tries in the critical home league match against Chelmsford.

Player-coach Lee Harron paid tribute to first team skipper and forward Paul Eynon who won the Player of the Year award.

He praised both his work to motivate the team in a difficult season and his personal contribution as a player who would consistently get across the gain line in attack.

The Player's Player award went to front row forward Stuart Wilkins and the Most Improved Player was Mark Twiner, who moved up to the first team this year and performed very well at lock.

The second XV the player-of-the-year award went to scrum-half Neil Fitzpatrick and centre Matt Johnson received the third team one.

The extremely versatile Mark Wedd took the title for the 4th XV.

In the course of the season he played virtually every position on the park, including prop, hooker and fly-half.

More than 100 people attended the event.

Other awards: 2nd XV most improved player: Sam Cootes 3rd XV most improved player: James Banks 4th XV most improved player: Paul Crabb.

Junior teams end season on a high

THREE young teams from Harlow Hawks Basketball Club have shone in this season's Junior Central Venue Basketball League (JCVL).

The U-11, U-14 and U-17 team have made impressive progress during the season.

The most notable was the U-14 team as they went undefeated all season and were crowned champions.

The JCVL was hosted once a month for each age group at Mark Hall Sportcentre and all the teams played between two and four games at each event over the last five months.

The Hawks U-11 White team finished as runners-up for the second season running to Stevenage Scorpions.

Next season, almost half the players from both the U-11 teams will move up to the U-14 age group.

In the U-14 age group, after some shaky starts the Hawks team managed to secure some big victories and win the league with an unbeaten record. The runners-up were Baldock based North Herts Knights.

The U-17 age group went to the wire as Hawks and Ware Leopards battled it out for the title.

In the final match between the two sides, Hawks were pipped as champions by the Ware side for the second successive year. Harlow were runners-up.

This was the second year that the JCVL was run in Harlow and proved hugely successful once again.

Hawks head coach Shab Niaz said: "A number of the other clubs have commented on how their players have improved over the last two or three years due to them participating in the JCVL and when you can actually see that progression it is very pleasing. "In the younger age groups, we have had a number of players that have made huge strides from last season and from the U-17 age group we have had one of them additionally playing with the second men's team this season.

"The JCVL is an important tool for us to develop some of our future stars."

Hawks are looking to bolster their U-11 section for next season to try and enter at least two teams (8-9 players per team) into the JCVL.

Apex hit the pinnacle

TWO wins and two second spots were achieved by members of a trampolining club at the Eastern Open competition.

Twelve members of the Apex Trampolining Club, based at Harlow's Mark Hall Sportcentre, competed in the tournament in Norfolk.

In the individual category, Mistral Tredgett was first in the U-15 female Grade G category.

Nathan Holmes was second in the U-13 male Grade F section.

Robyn Wilson was third in the over 15 years female Grade E event, while Holly Dawn took fifth place in the U-15 female Grade G section.

In the synco competition, Poppy Walton and Beatrice Calvert were first and club-mates Julie and Nathan Holmes were runners-up.

Holly Dawn and Mistral Tredgett finished in fifth spot in this category.

Club-mates Harley Kirk, Molly Timpson, Danielle Maynard, Mark Arnold and Isabelle Skinner all made

Harlow Tn won by five wickets

Herts & Essex Cricket League div two

A CAPTAIN'S knock from Harlow Town skipper Vic Goddard and good all-round display from James Hayter were key factors in their home victory over Hockerill.

Saturday's division two match hung in the balance when the hosts had slipped to 128-5 in response to Hockerill's 199-8.

However, Hayter (27 not out), who had earlier taken four wickets, lent Goddard (39 not out) valuable support.

The pair played sensible cricket and added an unbroken 72 for the sixth wicket to knock off the target with 11 balls to spare.

Earlier, Town won the toss and decided to field and claimed two early wickets through Ashley Alderson. Town found more wickets harder to come by despite tight bowling from Shane Hooper (1-24).

Excellent batting from Hockerill's Alex Francis (67) and Matt Hudson (59) gave the visitors a testing total. Hayter also bowled well for Harlow.

In reply, Town openers Pat Yates (42) and Shiraz Ali (39) put on 100 together for the opening wicket.

However, a poor 20 minutes of cricket from the hosts saw them slump to 128-5.

Poor shots and running between the wickets saw the game edge in Hockerill's favour before Goddard and Hayter turned the tables.

In division four, Harlow Town seconds (186-7) won by 66 runs at Cloghams (120).

In division seven, Harlow Town thirds (164-5; David Bailey 76 not out) won by five wickets at Rickling Ramblers II.

In division three, Potter Street (213-5) lost by five wickets at home to Molehill Green (215-5).

GB joy for fighter

A YOUNG tae kwon do fighter has moved a step closer to his dream of representing Great Britain at the 2012 London Olympics by winning a gold medal at the BTCB British Tae Kwon Do Championships.

John Smallbone (20), from Harlow, was presented with his medal by Great Britain

Olympic tae kwon do bronze medallist Sarah Stevenson.

He took the lightweight (-72kgs) title after victory at the Manchester Velodrome.

He fought his way through three tough rounds to reach the final.

He then beat Robert Shaw from Pulse Tae Kwon Do in Huddersfield 7-0 in just 32 seconds of the first round to seal the crown.

Smallbone's father Gary said: "John is one step closer to his goal of representing Great Britain in the 2012 London Olympics."

His next major completion is the UTF international championships at the K2 centre in Croydon. He got a silver medal last year in this event.

Then he is back to the Manchester Velodrome in August for the BTCB International Championships.

The youngster plans to go to Korea to train and support his goal of being selected for the GB squad.

Smallbone trains under Master Esrar Ahmed, of the Hadri Tae Kwon Do, based in Walthamstow.

LOWER Street's non-appearance in Saturday's must-win match for Heath Rovers has surely tipped the division one title scales in the leaders' favour.

Hatfield Heath reserves had overtaken Rovers at the top with a 1-0 home win last Wednesday thanks to a goal from John Gummer.

But Rovers returned to the top on Saturday when they were awarded the points from their home match after Lower Street failed to show.

Hatfield Heath reserves kept up the pressure with a 3-1 home win against Frontiers at the weekend. Paul Eeles replied for Frontiers.

Rovers need one win from their last two games to secure the crown.

In the premier division, Alemite Athletic closed the gap on leaders North Weald to a single point with an 8-1 demolition of Langley Rangers.

Following last week's nine-goal haul Anthony James had a quieter afternoon with just the four goals. Other scorers were Lewis Eaglestone, Simon Hewitt (2) and Rob Garaty, while Daniel Saunders replied for Langley.

The Hawks were relegated from this division last season.

Fisher Athletic were relegated from Blue Square South into the Ryman premier division, but the South London club have financial problems and may not play in the Ryman League.

The Hawks could then be reinstated into the premier division.

Margate, who finished a place above Harlow and in a relegation position, are already due to gain a reprieve due to Team Bath dropping out of Blue Square South.

There are also financial concerns at other clubs and this could provide a lifeline for Harlow - even if it means moving into the Southern League.

This route into step three would involve a lot more travelling and Alzapiedi has his feet firmly on the ground. "I am planning for next season for step four but I can adapt my plans if the situation changes," he said.

"It's not something I am sitting down and waiting for [moving back into step three]. I have already planned what training work and what fitness work we are doing."

All-round effort
from Jessey

AN excellent all-round display from Ryan Jessey (8-49 and 50) helped Harlow Cricket Club's second team beat Colchester by four wickets in the Shepherd Neame Essex League 2nd XI div one championship.

Harlow posted 194-6 with Iain Nuttall hitting 53 on Saturday.

Colchester were bowled out for 193.

Dan Stopp scored 41 and took 3-43 when Harlow thirds (169) lost by six wickets at Ardleigh Green (172-4) in division one.

Joy of Sox thanks to winter break

Welcome to Inside Track, our column that gives you the reader an insight into Harlow Greyhound Stadium as our top tipster reveals his favourites for tomorrow (Friday May 15).

OFFSHORE SOX ought to be fast-approaching her peak following her winter lay-off and looks to have found the perfect opening tomorrow at 10pm.

A class act when fully tuned, she is expected to put these top grade rivals firmly in their place.

CENTAUR SANDI is the obvious danger to the selection but should just be found wanting in the closing stages.

ZANTE reaches her 100th race landmark at 9pm and there is no reason why she can't mark the special occasion with a win.

Her best days may be behind her but she can still perform at a decent standard and with an ideal trap draw on the rails she can go close.

Win or lose she has been a tremendous servant for connections.

Friday May 15 selections:

7.30pm Treacle Gem; 7.45pm Alis Alix; 8pm Trotters El Zanc; 8.15pm Sat Nav Sal; 8.30pm Your Simple; 8.45pm Hasitcometohis; 9pm Zante; 9.15pm Kengeifutosweet; 9.30pm Leas Lady; 9.45pm Risky Fabio; 10pm Offshore Sox; 10.15pm Treacle Rose.

Depleted women's show of strength

A SMALL team of Harlow athletes took part in the first Southern Women's League of the season in Sandy, Bedfordshire.

Returning from injury, Polly Woods secured a win in the A triple jump (10.43m).

Sian Donovan was 2nd in the A 100m (13.3s) and 4th in the A discus (16.44 personal best).

Cara Powell was 5th in the A 1,500m (6:34.0, PB).

In the U-15 girls, Marleen Avontuur and Isobel Moss combined fitness with speed to win the A 1,500m (5:48.3) and B 1,500m (6:04.1).

Marleen was also 3rd in the A Discus (12.68m) and 2nd in the A long jump (3.97m, PB).

Isobel was 2nd in the B long jump (3.50m, PB) and 3rd in the B javelin (8.15m, PB).

Eleanor Moss was 5th in the A Shot (4.83m PB), 2nd in the B discus (10.76m, PB) and 4th in the A javelin (10.18m).

Athletes on song in Essex Championships

A GROUP of Harlow-based athletes excelled at the Essex County Championships in Chelmsford.

Billy Falconer (16) led the way with an excellent win in the high jump. The Passmore School student leapt 1.85m.

His brother Alfie, making his debut in the U-13 hammer competition, gained a silver medal with a throw of 24.78m.

Markus Hunt struck gold in the 400m in 48.5s. The Harlow teenager also won his heat in a slightly quicker time of 48.4s and was 5th in the 200m final (22.2s).

Mark Hall student Tom Larkin (16) gained a bronze in the U-17 boys 400m in 51.8s.

His sister Amy also clinched a bronze in the U-17 girls hammer. She threw a personal best (PB) of 29.21m.

Richards (16) claimed a bronze medal in the U-17 boys javelin with a throw of 47.89m.

Burnt Mill School pupil Amelia Barrett clocked a PB of 2mins

44.4s in the U-13 girls 800m.

School-mate Sophie Fuhr was 5th in the final of the U-17 girls 300m hurdles (49.8s).

She failed to qualify for the 800m final after a time of 2:29.02.

Harlow's Dan Yaxley clocked a personal best time of 2:06.7 in his 800m heat but this was not enough to secure a place in the final.

North Weald's Joanne Ryan, who is sponsored by Darlington's, won the senior women's 400m in 55.4s and took silver in the 200m (24.03 PB).

Jess Docking, also from North Weald, was 7th in the girls 1,500m final.

● BRIAN Kinuchia leapt a massive 1.45m in the high jump at the West Essex District Schools Year 7 Championships.

This placed the St Mark's School student fourth in the UK rankings in the U-13s age group.

At the same competition, Harlow's Lewis Chalk won the 800m in 2:39.

Both qualified for the Essex Schools Championships on June 13, as have the rest of the above athletes.

Twins double up in league opener

TWIN brothers Carl and Glen Paxman clinched a double win in the long jump and 400m in Harlow Athletic Club's first Southern Men's League match of the season.

Carl leapt 6.16m to win the A-string long jump, while his brother registered 5.94m in the B event.

Glen won the A 400m in 53.1s and Carl was first in the B event (58.1s).

Carl also won the B javelin (37.98m).

Steve Downs won the A 110m hurdles (19.8s) and A 400m hurdles, where he beat the field almost by a hurdle (66.7s).

Craig Snook took first place in the B 110m hurdles (21.5s) and the A javelin (41.44m).

Further wins came from Ian Smith in the B 100m (12.3s), Jamie Solomon in the A 1,500m (4:33.0), Paul Avontuur in the A shot (9.66m) and Harlow finished the match by winning both the 4x100m and the 4x400m relays.

The team ended the match in second place, two points behind the winners Bedford.

Other results: - Glen Paxman - A 100m 11.9s, 2nd; A 200m 24.9s, 4th; A high jump 1.55m, 4th; A pole vault 1.10m, 4th; B triple jump 10.97m, 2nd; B shot 8.77m, 3rd.

Carl Paxman - B high jump 1.40m, 3rd; A triple jump 11.03m, 4th.

David Marriott - B 200m 24.8s, 2nd.

Liam Mistry - A 800m 2:09.7, 2nd.

Julian Tamplin - B 800m 2:11.8, 2nd.

JAMES Butler has used his contacts to sign Sri Lankan Malinda Thotiwilage as a temporary overseas replacement for Indian batsman Abhishek Jhunjhunwala.

Jhunjhunwala went back to India to sort out his domestic commitments with Bengal in the Indian Cricket League.

He is due to return on May 26 and Thotiwilage (27), who has played for Colombo, will cover for two matches starting at home to Old Southendians this Saturday.

James Butler, Harlow's skipper, said: "I was contacted by a friend who said Malinda was available.

"As we have Abhishek out and two other batsmen not available this Saturday we were a bit light.

"Malinda will give us experience and he will probably bat at four. He can also bowl seamers."

Nick Butler's excellent spin bowling (5-32) could not prevent Harlow from sliding to defeat in their opening league match at Walthamstow last Saturday.

James Butler won the toss and put Walthamstow in to bat and they made 165 on a difficult wicket.

League debutant Jason McNally bowled beautifully and with excellent rhythm early on, beating opener Ashley Leat's bat time after time.

Luke Heskett bowled Norris for 10 and star batsman Asif Bala was dismissed by McNally for 28.

McNally took 2-22 while Nick Butler came on and finished the job but a more crucial performance came from Walthamstow's Michael Harris. He struck an aggressive 63.

Harlow's reply started poorly, as Nick Butler was dismissed for 0 after he was undone by a good delivery from Masood Azim.

Waqas Akhtar and Rehman Ahmed batted beautifully together and they took the score to 48-1.

However, Akhtar was stumped for 30 and Ahmed skied a catch to go for 24 and with them Harlow's hopes disappeared.

Only Nino Calvino showed resolution as he compiled a patient 35 not out as Harlow slumped to 122.

Butler said: "I am disappointed with the result but there were plenty of positives in the batting of Nino, Rehman and Waqas.

"I think we gave them 30 more runs than we should have, but it's early doors and I am sure we will bounce back."

"We now have to start winning," the captain added.

Bowen shines in KO Cup win

HARLOW'S Luke Bowen helped ease Rye House Rockets into the next round of the Knockout Cup with a solid performance against Birmingham on Saturday night.

Rockets had done all the hard work in the first leg, their 47-43 victory giving them a good buffer, but there was no room for complacency - and despite securing the win with three races to spare there was plenty to excite fans of the Hoddesdon club.

Joe Haines was in devastating form, reeling off four wins and 15 points, but Bowen and Andrew Silver provided solid support in the reserve berth, racking up a combined score of 21 against a Brummies equivalent of just four.

Rockets opened with two wins from Haines and 5-1s from the pairings of Bowen/Silver and Linus Sundstrom/Silver to march into a 17-7 lead after just four races and take the tie beyond the visitors' reach.

There was plenty of good racing to follow, however, with several blanket finishes involving all four riders.

Bowen collected the notable scalp of former Grand Prix star Jason Lyons in Heat 11. "Beating Jason was a huge high," said

Bowen. "He's a hard rider and I thought he was going to carry on running me in but I got the drop on him going into the corner and just pulled clear.

"It keeps the momentum going here - I'm not afraid of anyone around Rye. I just need to make some starts in the away matches and then I'll get somewhere. I haven't been doing too badly on the road but doing better is the main aim."

Veteran Silver was involved in a battle royal with Richard Sweetman in Heat 8, the Birmingham rider coming off worst and hitting the dirt.

Fittingly it was skipper Chris Neath whose Heat 12 win clinched an aggregate success with three races to spare.

The Rockets will now meet either Cup holders Somerset or Glasgow in the second round. The Rebels edged the first leg of their tie 46-44 on Friday night, but Sunday's second round was abandoned prematurely after Heat 7 because of rain.

Rye House scorers: R Mear 4 (from four rides); J Haines 15 (6); C Neath 7+1 (4); L Sundstrom 9 (5); L Bowen 11(6); A Silver 7+3 (6).

OSSIE'S DREAM:

'Ossie's on his way to Harlow'

HIS knees have gone all trembly cos Ossie's on his way to Barrows Farm! It's not got the same ring to it as 'Wembley' but Spurs legend Ossie Ardiles will be at Harlow Town FC this Sunday for a special match between the Tottenham Hotspur Legends and Harlow Town Legends. The 1978 Argentina World Cup winner is helping to relaunch the Spurs Legends side which will be based permanently at Barrows Farm from next season. And while Ardiles won't actually be playing, his presence at the game will bring back memories of the halcyon days of Ricky Villa, Steve Archibald et al in the 1980s. Former Spurs favourites Mark Falco and Tony Galvin will play in the match which kicks off at 2pm. They are set to be joined by 1970s 'comb over' legend Ralph Coates as well as John Pratt, Dennis Bond, Garry Brooke, Micky Hazard and Steve Sedgley. Other names lined up are Les Boughey, Perry Suckling, Andy Edmonds, Mark Stimson, Mark Robson, Steve Smart, Richard Cooke, Trevor Wilkinson, Tim O'Shea and Danny Hill.

Lining up in the Harlow side are old favourites Marvin Samuel and Wade Falana. Dave Edwards and Dave Hoddle will reprise their managerial double act for the one-off game, which is due to feature current Hawks boss Glen Alzapiedi as well as Terry Burns, Tony Comerford, Dennis Greene, Dave Greene, Andy Walker, Roy Parkyn, Ray Wickenden, Neil Moore, Wayne Cort, Gary Laffar, Ray Pask and Stewart Ingielewicz. Entry prices for Sunday's game at Barrows Farm will be £5 for adults and £2 children and concessions.

Richards knocks on Wood

Striker teams up with old boss

STRIKER Jamie Richards and physio Paul West-Hook have teamed up with former Hawks player-boss Ryan Kirby at Boreham Wood.

Richards was brought to Harlow Town by Kirby, who was sacked as Hawks manager in December.

West-Hook was released from his positions as physio and team manager at Harlow shortly after the season ended. He had been connected with the club in various capacities for 10 years.

first team physio and will also operate a physio clinic at the Hertfordshire club.

Meanwhile, Hawks boss Glen Alzapiedi has held talks with three new players.

They are a right-back, a keeper and a midfielder. Two of them played at step three (equivalent to Ryman premier division) and all played at step four (equivalent to Ryman division one north) last term.

Alzapiedi is refusing to name the trio but said: "They all seemed impressed with the facilities and the way the club wants to move forward."

The Hawks boss is starting to rebuild his squad after the departure of Richards. He also released keeper James Hasell, right-back Mark Taylor, defender Paul Kear and midfielder Sam Berry last week.

"I want players that can cope with the demands of step three and play the type of football I want to bring to Harlow which is that of high intensity and forward movement."

The Football Association are due to have a meeting today (Thursday) to decide next year's Non-League divisions and this offers hope that Harlow will remain in the premier division.
